POSITION AVAILABLE

We are currently hiring for the General Manager position at Hotel Vandivort

Hotel Vandivort, 305 E. Walnut Street Springfield, MO www.HotelVandivort.com

Hotel Vandivort has taken the lead in business, service, and vision since it's opening in July 2015. It offers a lively environment that goes beyond the walls of the hotel. The seat of the leader awaits you. You should be prepared to share your high-energy leadership style and carry an internal passion for the brand, while creating a professional culture that reflects who you are when coupled with such a great property.

This is a position of growth, so only ambitious hotel operators will be considered. As an independent boutique hotel, creative thinking is embraced so the candidate should expect to apply dynamic thinking and entrepreneurial initiatives to the job.

We hope you like people. If you don't, there's no need to apply. Maintaining relationships with our vendors, associates, and guests is the key to success and is the expectation. Community involvement and participating in appropriate local/regional marketing efforts is expected in this role. So if you're not from Springfield, that's okay, but prepare to be a strong ambassador for the area if you get the job.

Candidates should possess skills in restaurant/food service management, team development, property operations, and have a proven track record to execute and problem solve in a detail-oriented customer service environment. This experienced and confident individual will be expected to manage the operations to maximize profitability, ensure superior guest service, and product quality. An understanding of community-focused and targeted marketing plans is important. This candidate should be prepared to direct the maximization of revenue with anticipation of market shifts, develop and monitor annual marketing plans.
