

Hospitality Management

POSITION AVAILABLE

We are currently hiring for the position of:

Food & Beverage Service Manager at HotelRED

The Wise Restaurant & Bar at HotelRED is seeking an experienced Service Manager. This motivated individual will be responsible for selecting and training the Front of House staff. Your responsibilities will include offering an exception experience to all hotel, restaurant, and banquet event guests.

We hope you enjoy a good party, because you will be executing promotional events for the restaurant on a regular basis. You will be the property point person for the beverage vendor selection and menu. Of course there will be paperwork, so your understanding of payroll costs, inventory controls, and sales reports is essential to your success.

If you are driven and willing to initiate action, a strong communicator, and show great care for the guest experience, this job is for you. The ability to effectively communicate and work under pressure is a must. You will serve as a part of the management team at HotelRED, working closely with the Executive Chef and General Manager to contribute to the existing climate of excellence in both the restaurant and hotel operations.

This position is full-time management and will require weekend and holiday hours. As such, flexibility is a must. The position comes with a comprehensive, competitive compensation package including health, dental, and vision insurance; a company-matched 401k program; paid vacation and more. Salary commensurate with experience.
